

Congratulations nominees

Brandon Leadbetter

Brandon has continued to impress those around him. He consistently excels in his studies and has recently received all 5s in his recent TAFE feedback. They say that his theoretical work surpasses expectations, and he demonstrates a sound, practical knowledge of carpentry. His understanding of task requirements and his dedication to meeting expectations make him an invaluable asset. Hard work and exceptional performance lights his potential to become an outstanding professional in the field.

Nicole Geddes

Nicole has great passion and desire to learn. She is a team player. Nicole has really settled into team and host. She brings great energy to her team. Always a delight to support and work with Nicole.

Ebony Turner

We are proud to nominate Ebony for her exceptional skills and unwavering commitment to her role with STEP Training. Ebony excels at identifying opportunities to streamline processes and proactively addresses tasks that need attention. She consistently follows directions with precision and ensures all tasks are completed thoroughly. She is always on time, setting a reliable example for her peers. Her organizational skills are impeccable, allowing her to manage her responsibilities efficiently. Ebony's communication is open, reflective, and professional. She serves as a great first contact voice and face for our Education & Training business, embodying the professionalism and dedication we strive to uphold. Her outstanding performance and dedication make Ebony a deserving candidate for this recognition.

Vanessa Blight

Vanessa has shown significant growth over the past couple of months when she was asked to step up and assist other regions and business units outside of her normal gamut of responsibilities.

Madison Buschel

Madison Buschel is being nominated for her dedication to her apprenticeship. She has proven to be an asset to her host employer, winning employee of the month a few times in a row. Additionally, she has undertaken tasks to gain a thorough comprehension of her apprenticeship duties and what each unit of competency will entail in her own time.

Lyndon Sutherland at Sun Metals

I'm nominating Lyndon Sutherland at Sun Metals for his dedication and assistance with assuring that Tom has had everything he needs for his qualification sign off. His commitment to ensuring quick turn arounds with any queries is commendable.

Thomas Luckhurst

Thomas has demonstrated exceptional dedication and progress, advancing from completing one theory unit in April to nearly fulfilling all his qualification requirements. His remarkable commitment to his studies makes him a deserving candidate for this award.

Samia Saleem

I had interviewed a number of people and Samia was the best interview I have ever done! - It has been all uphill since then. She learned one of our biggest tasks quickly and with little to no errors! She is now working on learning our most complicated task and has picked it up quickly. Samia is so sweet and kind to her teammates. She is an asset to the Banking Team and is a great #Teampossible player! - She also recently volunteered for NDVR at Carindale shopping centre wrapping Mothers Day presents

James Frost

James came from a background where he did not have a lot of admin/excel experience. He worked so hard to learn the tasks and to get up to speed and he did it always with a smile and a laugh. He now has a very large workload which he completes on time and with ease. He is always on time, is never ill, always eager to learn something new and has a great attitude. We are excited that we will soon be welcoming James a permanent employee!

Dave Bangoy x 2

Dave started in the team at very difficult time - due to the amount of staff leaving and new staff starting. In this time, Dave worked tirelessly to keep the team afloat. He learned quickly and on the fly and for a time he was one of the main processors of payments. Dave kept his cool and has a great attitude. He is an asset to the Accounts Payable team

Dave started a few weeks ago and has embraced his role with little training and no support while I have been on unexpected extended leave. I am so very impressed with Dave showing natural leadership and assisting new starters this week.

Silas Cedric

Silas has almost completed his apprenticeship and after a rough start he is really getting in to the groove and opening up about his life goals. He has pushed through issues and is now flying through his apprenticeship.

Peta Bell

Peta goes above and beyond with her customers to ensure that no stone is left unturned with steps to job readiness. She loves taking her customers out reverse marketing and has great success with this.

Aiden Freeman

Over the course of the last year, Aiden has shown remarkable development and unwavering dedication to his apprenticeship. He consistently displays initiative by taking on additional responsibilities, showcasing a level of maturity that truly stands out.

Felicity wadsworth

Felicity Wadsworth has been an outstanding and hardworking Civil Construction trainee since 2022, starting out as a School Based trainee and into a Full-Time role post year 12. Felicity has been earmarked as leadership material by her Host employers and is a massive advocate for our Community Solutions GTO through candidate referrals and relaying her GTO journey to crowds of students in order to increase female uptake in the field. You will see Felicity's face on our website promoting the Women in Construction program. Well and truly worthy!!!!
