DISTANCE EDUCATION PROGRAM

ALL CANDIDATES NOT ATTENDING LECTURES AT DURACK WILL STUDY BY DISTANCE EDUCATION.

- Distance Education: is an on-going 'Self-Education/Self-Funded Program' with the responsibility of learning resting with the candidate.
- A two (2) Year Group Judges Training Program: (Refer Rule 16 & 17, 17-b, c, d, e.)
- Lectures: You may attend metropolitan lectures or lecture with the regional facilitators.
- Breed Assignments: Consisting of researching and selecting a 'Photo' of each Breed (s), noting a minimum of five (5) Hallmarks/Characteristics of that breed and a critique for each breed to be submitted by the candidates to your Regional Facilitator/Coordinator. Breed assignments are required to be completed in alignment with the scheduled metropolitan breed lecture nights. (Refer: Group Scheduled Breed Lecture Dates) on the DQ website.
- Reference Material: Breed Standards/Extended Breed Standards online DQ or ANKC websites or available (in CD format) from the DQ office. Power Point presentations and some electronic copies of metropolitan lecture notes may be available from the Group Coordinators.
- Stewarding: (minimum 6 appointments – Yellow Steward card) (refer Rule: 13, 13 -a & b)
- Mentoring/Critiquing: When attending Mentoring Days or Critiquing with a Mentor (the Mentor/Judge must have Championship status in that Group for at least 5 years) and must be signed by the mentor. (refer rule:17c, d & e)

Other activities listed are to include:

- Attendance and participation in Mentoring days, Sweepstakes & Open Shows.
- Exhibitor/Breeder/Kennel visits - It is important to note that these visits should be of a reasonable duration and must be able to list the number dogs you viewed and discussed and attach a written Critique. The Critique form must be signed by the Breeder/Exhibitor/Mentor and then to be submitted annually for each group. (Refer: Distance Education Judges Trainee Profile forms)
- List any shows you have attended as an observer. e.g. Speciality Shows for breeds within this Group, shows where you have been ringside and observed this group's judging preferably with a "Mentor" Judge. (using D.E. Judges Training Profile Form)
- Critiques of any dogs examined must be attached and must be signed by an Accredited Assessor. Once again, you must spend a considerable time at these Shows and your Mentor Judge or Breed Club Official must sign the back of the form.
- Be a working member or an executive of any Club.
(refer Attach Club Activity form signed by the Club Executive.
