

Emptiness and Buddha-nature in Chinese Buddhist Philosophy

An author-meets-critics symposium at the Notre Dame Centre for the History of Philosophy with Dr Jenny Hung of the Hong Kong University of Science & Technology (HKUST).

5 November 2026

Find out more events.humanitix.com/emptiness-and-buddha-nature

Dr Jenny Hung

Dr Yu Sang

Dr Elena Walsh

Dr Waldemar Brys

Emptiness and Buddha-nature in Chinese Buddhist Philosophy

An author-meets-critics symposium with Dr Jenny Hung (HKUST) at the Notre Dame Centre for the History of Philosophy.

Join the Centre for the History of Philosophy for an author-meets-critics symposium critically engaging with Dr Jenny Hung's new book project, Between Buddha-nature and Emptiness: The Peak Era of Chinese Buddhist Philosophy (Oxford University Press).

This special event brings together leading scholars of Chinese philosophy and Buddhist thought to discuss Dr Hung's significant contribution to the study of Chinese Buddhist philosophy.

Following an introduction to the book by Dr Hung, three distinguished respondents – Dr Elena Walsh (University of Wollongong), Dr Yu Sang (University of Sydney) and Dr Waldemar Brys (Notre Dame) – will offer critical reflections on the work.

Date

Thursday 5 November 2026

Time

1:30 PM–4:00 PM AEDT

In-person location

NDS22/102 - Broadway Campus
The University of Notre Dame Australia
140 Myrtle Street, Chippendale NSW, 2008

Online (via Microsoft Teams)

Link and password sent to registrants.

Register here

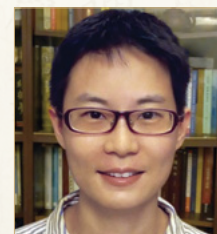

events.humanitix.com/emptiness-and-buddha-nature

Attendance is free.
Registration essential.

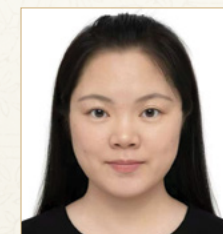

Enquiries

chop@nd.edu.au

Speakers

Dr Jenny Hung
Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

Dr Yu Sang
University of Sydney

Dr Elena Walsh
University of Wollongong

Dr Waldemar Brys
Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
The University of Notre Dame Australia